

2015 Commission on the Status of Women

Making women's voices heard from Beijing to Post-2015 in social media

Tuesday 17 March 2015

10:00 - 11:15 am

UN HQ Conference Room 11 (GA Building)

Join the conversation to discuss how social media can empower women to take a larger role in decision-making processes within the post-2015 agenda and help push for greater accountability and action on gender equality!

Panellists:

@ Anna Falth, Manager of EmpowerWomen.org, UN Women, @AFalth

@ Estelle Loiseau, Gender Programme Officer, OECD Development Centre, @estelle_loiseau

@ Liz Ford, Deputy Editor, Guardian's Global development website, @LizFordGuardian

@ Mollie Vandor, Product Manager, Twitter, @mollie

@ Keshet Bachan, Girl expert, Plan International, @KeshetBachan

Live webcast: See www.EmpowerWomen.org and www.wikigender.org. Questions to panellists will be received through Twitter #WomenSpeak.

Questions? Contact us at dev.gender@oecd.org or empower.women@unwomen.org

Supported by:

